Re: 6024 N. Rockwell Street, Chicago, IL 60659
(Fry and Quach from Estate of Klett)

Mr. Antonopoulos:

Pursuant to the attorney review and home inspection contingencies of paragraph 13(c) of the contract ("Contract") for the Property, I hereby propose the following contractual modifications. These do not constitute a counteroffer, and I reserve the right to withdraw any or all of these prior to acceptance of the same by Seller:

- (1) In the event of a conflict between the terms of this letter and the terms of the extant Contract, for purposes of Contract interpretation, the terms of this letter will control. #1 - The terms of an agreed letter shall control.
- (2) For purposes of the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act, Seller warrants that he is a U.S. citizen, or legal U.S. permanent resident, and will execute a FIRPTA affidavit, not later than closing, confirming the same. #2 - Agreed.
- (3) Seller will disclose whether he has made any insurance claims with respect to the Property during his ownership thereof, and the disposition of any such claims. #3 - Seller is the Executor of the Estate and has no recollection if a claim was filed. The terms of the Contract shall control.
- (4) A "New Construction" title exception will be raised on the title commitment for this Property, and waived from said commitment. #4 - This is not new construction.
- (5) Seller will provide a zoning certificate, from the City of Chicago, which shows the Property to be a legally-conforming use to said Property's RT-4 zoning classification. Seller confirms that the Property is a two-unit dwelling. #5 - A two (2) unit zoning certification has been ordered.

- (6) Seller will convey all leases and lease amendments to Buyers for their review. If a tenancy at the Property is not evidenced by a written lease, Seller will provide Buyers with written confirmation of the terms of any oral leases. Seller will also provide Buyer with an attornment letters for the tenants of the Property. Seller ~~warrants~~ that all tenants leasing at the Property are current in their obligations under their respective leases or rental agreements, and are not otherwise in violation of said leases and rental agreements. Buyers' obligation to consummate this transaction is contingent on Buyers' review, and approval, of the information requested in this paragraph. #6 - There are two month to month tenants. Seller will provide the terms.

- represents
(7) Seller ~~warrants~~ that this Property is not currently in foreclosure, nor is it subject to a short sale. #7 - Agreed as modified.

- (8) Contract, paragraph 7, lines 46-60 – add the following items of personal property to those being conveyed to Buyer at closing: “”. #8 - Nothing is listed.

- (9) Contract, paragraph 8, lines 88-90 – delete the following language on these lines: “this Contract shall be voidable at the election of either Party by giving Notice to terminate this Contract to the other Party. If prior to the Seller serving such Notice to terminate, Buyer provides written evidence of such financing approval, this Contract shall remain in full force and effect.” Substitute the following for said deleted language: “If notice is given by Buyers to Seller, not later than the contractual financing contingency deadline, that Buyers do not yet have a clear-to-close mortgage approval, and Buyers request an extension of said financing contingency deadline, Seller shall not have the right to terminate this Contract.”

#9 - The terms of the Contract shall control.

- (10) Contract, paragraph 12(a), line 147 – delete “tbd attys’ ”, and substitute “105%” therefor. #10 - Agreed.

- (11) Seller will convey the Property to Buyers at closing, in broom-clean condition. #11 - Agreed as to vacant apartment.

- (12) Contract, paragraph 15(c), lines 237-244 – delete the language from “in the event” through the end of this paragraph. Substitute the following language therefor: “Notwithstanding anything in this Contract to the contrary, Buyers have the right to propose credits based on the results of Buyers' home inspection.”

#12 - Not agreed.

- (13) The Buyers' home inspection showed evidence of flooding, water damage, likely mold infestation, and indications that these are chronic problems, rather than one-time events. There are also number of deferred maintenance items, including electrical deficiencies, grading of the property that runs to, rather than from the Property, chimney and masonry repairs, as shown by the inspection report. We are asking for a closing cost credit of the equivalent of 3% of the purchase price, and a reduction of the purchase price by $22,500.00 to $571,500.00. #13 - Not agreed. Even though this is an "As Is" transaction the Seller will agree to a $10,000 credit or PP reduction in order to move the transaciton forward.

(14) Seller will provide any and all records, receipts, warranties, permits, and other information, regarding the following:

- (a) Foundation and waterproofing work;
- (b) The reason the basement walls were removed/gutted;
- (c) Any prior basement water intrusion or flooding;
- (d) Any mold remediation;
- (e) Prior chimney/ masonry work; and
- (f) Any major electrical, boiler, water heater, or basement renovations.

If your client's executor agrees to the above, please ask her to acknowledge by signing on the line provided below. Then kindly email the executed version of this letter to my attention.

Very truly yours,
